All of these entities are now required to file reports electronically with the City of New Port Richey's City Clerk Office via an Internet-based electronic filing system.

Each candidate and political committee will be issued Sign-in Credentials, a log-in name and password, by the Pasco County Supervisor of Elections to access ("sign-in") the system. The candidate and political committee are responsible for safeguarding this sign-in information and for notifying the City Clerk should this information be lost or become compromised.
